Exercising Their Rights.

"The mine workers therefore are but exercising the right guaranteed by the constitution and which cannot be taken away by the representatives of government when they quit work or when they refuse to work until their grievances are adjusted. The mine workers representatives are ready, willing and anxious to meet the coal operators for the purpose of negotiating an agreement and bringing about a settlement of the present unhappy situation. They will respond at any time to a call for such a meeting and will honestly endeavor to work out a wage agreement upon a fair and equitable basis which agrement alone will put the mines in operation and guarantee the nation an adequate supply of coal. We assert that the mine workers have no other purpose in view—other than to secure a working wage agreement. All of their demands are incorporated in the wage proposals submitted to the coal operators and each and all are subject to negotiation.

"Conscious of the grave responsibility resting upon the representatives of the coal miners, we have no other alternative than to carry out the instructions of the United Mine Workers convention. The issue has been made and if it must be settled on the field of industrial battle, the responsibility rests fairly and squarely upon the coal barons alone."

From the Operators.

St. Louis, Mo., October 29.—Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the scale committee of the mine operators' association tonight reiterated that the mine owners would make no attempt to operate the mines, without government aid, after the strike became effective and reasserted that operators would re-open negotiations with the miners, if the strike order were rescinded pending settlement of differences.

Mr. Brewster denied the report that the operators had called a meeting at Cleveland to discuss the prospective strike.

Mr. Brewster declared the statement issued by the miners at Indianapolis tonight, was "merely a reiteration of what they have said before."

When told that Attorney General Palmer would act in the strike under provisions of the

CONTINUE PROBE INTO AIR SERVICE

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—An investigation of the bank accounts of John D. Ryan, formerly director of aircraft production is being made in behalf of the congressional sub-committee which is investigating war expenditures for aviation.

This was revealed by Mr. Ryan today in testifying before the committee here and the committee admitted it.

The purpose of the examination as indicated today is to learn whether Mr. Ryan assisted in financing the Siems, Carey and Kerbaugh corporation of New York in its contracts with the government for logging spruce in the state of Washington and building a 38 mile railroad from Lake Pleasant to Crescent Lake in the Olympia peninsula. This road connects with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad of which Mr. Ryan is a director.

Mr. Ryan admitted that Hayden, Stone & Co. had helped finance Siems, Carey and Kerbaugh.

Counsel read from official records showing that the cost of government spruce development work in the Olympia peninsult was $8,743,000. Mr. Ryan said that if he had been administering these affffairs such a salvage value would not have been listed.

He testified that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul never wanted the Lake Pleasant, Lake Crescent government railroad built and did not care to buy it now.

GRAFT EXPOSURES AT CAMP SHERMAN BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Testimony Before Congressional Committee May Result in Criminal and Civil Prosecutions

Columbus, O., Oct. 29.—Both criminal and civil presecutions may result from testimony given before the congressional sub-committee which is here investigating the construction of Camp Sherman, according to members of the committee. Alleged promises of graft, orders of superintendents and bosses to slow up work under threat of discharge, and general charges of inefficiency, mismanagement and extravagance was contained in evidence furnished by witnesses.

The only witness who said he did not consider there had been extravagance at the cantonment, was Major General Edwin F. Glenn, commanding the camp. He added, however, that he was only acquainted generally with the construction.

Carl M. Watts, Columbus, a team foreman, asserted that at the end of his first day's work with about 30 teams under his direction General Superintendent C. H. Hollingsworth of A. Bentley & Sons Company, Toledo, told him to "slow up." Watts testified that the men "learned they were not expected to work."

As many as 500 idle men at a time would be hidden in a gravel pit from the eyes of government inspectors according to Watts. Timekeepers came twice a day and checked the men as being at work, Watts declared.

The witness declared that he brought down four saddle horses and that a foreman told him he would put the horses on the payroll if Watts would split the money with him.

Members of the committee tonight said that they would not subpoenae members of the Bentley Company which built the cantonment on a plus basis. The hearings will be continued the remainder of the week.

DEATH LIST BROUGHT TO TWENTY-FOUR

MUSKEGON, Mich., Oct. 29.—Search of the wreckage of the Lake Steamer Muskegon, which pounded to pieces in a gale and sank in Muskegon Harbor yesterday and investigation by Crosby Line officials today brought the probable death list to 24. Fourteen are known to have lost their lives and six bodies have been recovered.

A trunk picked up on the beach today bearing the name of Rosie Rogers, whose address is unknown here led Purser Edward Vandervual to believe the owner was aboard the ill-fated steamer. Word received from Milwaukee indicated that Alvin Baum of that city and Miss Marion Schendel, a nurse of Cleveland were also passengers. Divers and coast guards spent today in searching the hull which lies in fifty feet of water and combing the shores of the lake for additional bodies but none were found. Tomorrow officials will drag the bottom of the channel and another search will be made of the wreckage.

Captain Fred Meno, of Detroit, federal steamboat inspector for this district today began an investigation of the accident.

POSTPONE HEARINGS UNTIL DECEMBER

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The interstate commerce commission hearing of the complaint of the National Wholesale Grocers' association charging the railroads with granting special privileges to the "Big Five" packers in the shipment of non-perishable food products was adjourned today until early in December.

At the time the grocers' organization and the intervening petitioners will present further evidence after which the railroads and the packers will put in their defense. At the closing session today a number of wholesale grocers from Texas and Oklahoma testified the alleged advantages enjoyed by packers were not enjoyed by other dealers in the shipment of certain classes of food products in the southwest.

BONDS VALUED AT $35,000 STOLEN

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Oct. 29.—Blowing the door off the safety deposit box vault and breaking the individual deposit boxes open with a hammer and other tools stolen from a near-by blacksmith shop, robbers sometime during the early morning today made a haul of $35,000 in Liberty bonds belonging to a hundred of the depositors of the State Bank of Sherrard, Ill., near here.

The robbery was discovered this morning when the janitors entered the building.

Because of the similarity of the Sherrard robbery to the one one at Mason City, Iowa, the night before, in which $10,000 in Liberty bonds were taken, the authorities are said to be trying to link them up in an attempt to run down the robbers.

Palmer Announces Governments Position In Pending Coal Strike

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The position of the government in the pending coal strike was announced tonight by Attorney General Palmer as follows:

"There can be no doubt that the government has the power in the public interest, under the law, to deal with the projected strike of the bituminous coal miners, without infringing upon the recognized right of men in any line of industry to work when they please and quit work when they please. The illegality of this strike can and will be established without in any way impairing the general right to strike and the general right to strike is not in issue in any sense whatever in the present situation. This is true because the circumstances differentiate this case from the case of any other strike that has ever taken place in the country. It does not follow that every strike is lawful merely because the right to strike is recognized to exist Every case must stand upon its own bottom and be governed by its own facts. Therefore, when the president said in his statement last Saturday that 'such a strike in such circumstances' is not only unjustifiable but unlawful reference was had only to the conditions in the impending situation.

Outside the Pale of Law.

"The proposed strike was ordered in a manner, for a purpose and with a necessary effect which taken together put it outside the pale of the law. After the war began, the production of fuel was regarded as one of the subjects of such peculiar public importance as to justify a special statutory enactment. The fuel administration was created to supervise the subject and matters of wages as well as prices were considered and sanctioned by the fuel administration. After the cessation of hostilities the fuel administration suspended certain of its orders, but did not terminate them, and they are subject to reinstatement at any time upon the president's order and the statute under which the orders were made is still in full force.

"With this situation existing the convention of United Mine Workers at Cleveland, last September, decided to annul all wage contracts on Nov. 1 and took the unprecedented step of deciding in advance of any opportunity for consultation either with the government or the coal operators to strike on Nov. 1, unless satisfactory new arrangements should be made.

Workers Had Nothing to Say.

"Without any expression from the workers themselves the organization promulgated a demand for a 60 per cent increase in wages, a six hour day and a five day week and authorized a strike to be effective Nov. 1 ,before the demands were even presented to the operators. The demand for a new wage agreement covered only a part of the coal fields where operators had been given no opportunity to even consider demands for increased wages or decreased hours. All this has been done while the miners in every field, thru their right of collective bargaining had entered into a solemn contract with the operators, fixing wages and hours for a definite period which has not expired. The operators upon the insistence of the president indicated their willingness to negotiate and arbitrate, providing the strike is deferred, while the miners rejected the president's request for arbitration as a means of settlement and refused to defer the strike.

"Some of the wage contracts were made with the sanction of the federal government operating thru the fuel administration to run during the continuation of the war or until April 1, 1920. Many others, however, run until a time still in the future without regard for the continuation of the war.

"While it is perfectly plain that the war is still on and any contract running until its conclusion is still in force whatever weight may be given to the argument that the successful operation of the war no longer requires such contracts it has no application whatever to the large number of such contracts which expire at a fixed date without regard for the war period.

"The armistice did not end the war and the courts in many cases have held that the war emergency statutes are still in force. The same rule must apply to war emergency contracts. The congress has held to this position so late as Oct. 22, when an act of congress was approved making ever more effective the food and fuel control act. The suspension of the restrictions as to the price of coal is not necessarily permanent and conditions warrant a renewal of these restrictions at this time and yet the government, if it reinstates the order fixing a maximum price, would be absolutely helpless to protect the people against exorbitant prices of the product if the contracts made under its sanction should not be deliberately broken. This does not mean that a change could not be negotiated and either agreed upon or arbitrated, if proper protection of the public be accorded in the settlement, but it does mean that the public welfare in the war time emergency must still be the same permanent intereest to be served by both parties.

Government Protector of Public Welfare.

"The government is the protector of the public welfare.

"The proposed strike, if carried to its logical conclusion will paralyze transportation and industry. It will deprive unnumbered thousands of men who are making no complaint about their employment of their right to earn a livelihood for themselves and their families; will put cities in darkness and if continued only for a few days, will bring cold and hunger to millions of our people; if continued for a month it will leave death and starvation in its wake. It would be a more deadly attack upon the life of the nation than an invading army.

"By enacting the food and fuel control act, congress has recognized the vital importance in the present circumstances of maintaining production and distribution of the necessaries of life and has made it unlawful for any concerted action, agreement or the arrangement to be made by two or more persons to limit the facilities of transportation and production to restrict the supply and distribution of fuel or to aid or to abet the doing of any act having this purpose or effect. Making a strike effective under the circumstances which I have described amounts to such concerted action or arrangement.

Law Will Be Enforced.

"It is the solemn duty of the department of justice to enforce this statute. We have enforced it in many cases. We must continue to do so irrespective of the persons involved in its violation. I hope it will not be necessary to enforce it in this case. Indeed I am hearing from many sources that large numbers of the miners themselves do not wish to quit work and will not do so if assured of the protection of the government of which they properly feel themselves a part.

"It is possibly unnecessary for me to say that such protection will everywhere be given so that men may exercise the undoubted right of continuing to work under such terms and conditions as they shall see fit. The facts present a situation which challenges the supremacy of the law and every resource of the government will be brought to bear to prevent the national disaster which would inevitably result from the cessation of mining operations."

SEC. WILSON WILL PRESIDE OVER GREAT LABOR GATHERING

Steps Taken for U. S. Participation in Conference Prior to U. S. Ratification of German Peace Treaty.

Washington, Oct. 29.—The first move of the international labor conference which formally opened here today, was to take steps for the virtual participation of the United States in the conference altho congress has decided against the appointment of delegates prior to the ratification of the peace treaty.

The United States will be represented in the conference thru Secretary of Labor Wilson, who opened today's session and probably will continue as conference president during the major portion of its deliberations.

Mr. Wilson will be proposed by the organizing committee as permanent chairman during the period of organization, at the meeting tomorrow.

Secretary Wilson said that he would accept the nomination in view of his interpretation that the organization of the conference cannot be completed until the league of nations is created, and that the United States is charged by the Versailles treaty with the organization of the conference.

The American Federation of Labor and the chamber of commerce of the United States were invited by the organizing committee to name the worker and employer delegate, respectively, to represent this country.

Samuel Gompers will represent the workers. Decision as to the choice of the chamber of commerce will await the arrival here tomorrow of Homer L. Ferguson, president.

Regret at the inability of President Wilson to attend the conference and hope for his early recovery was expressed in a resolution offered by Baron Des-Planches which the first to be adopted by the conference.

Owing to the lack of time the question of the admission of German and Austrian delegates was not taken up today and probably will be the first item on the program when the conference reconvenses at 2:30 p m. tomorrow.

Delegates generally expressed agreement today that the former enemy powers should be admitted without delay.

BIG TASK TO ENFORCE DRY LAW

Sale and Manufacture of Liquor Is Prohibited.

REVENUE MEN BUSY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Armed with the drastic provisions of the prohibition enforcement act, which became effective as to wartime prohibition with passage by the senate of the measure over the president's veto late yesterday agents of the bureau of internal revenue today took up the task of making absolute the ban on the manufacture and sale of liquor.

The few remaining saloons in the United States were legally open today for the sale only of beverages containing less than one-half of one per cent alcohol. Sale as well as manufacture of beverages of more than that amount alcoholic content laid the saloon-keper as well as the brewer or distiller liable to heavy penalties. But despite its drastic provisions the law could not touch the man who had stored up a supply in his own home for his own use.

In announcing his plans for enforcent of the war-time act, Internal Revenue Commissioner Roper, called on agencies and individuals and on state, county and municipal officials for assistance. Open violation of the law, Commissioner Roper asserted, would bring certain disrepute to the American form of government.

SALOON MEN GIVEN 24 HOURS RESPITE

St. Louis, Oct. 29.—St. Louis saloon men were given a 24 hour respite as a result of an error on the part of a girl employe of a telegraph company. The girl read "tomorrow" instead of "today."

BELGIAN ROYALTY VISITS THE TOMB OF WASHINGTON

King Albert Places Wreath Upon the Sarcophagus of Nation's First Chief Executive—Makes Trip to Mt. Vernon on Mayflower.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Belgium's monarchs paid homage today to the memory of Washington. At Mt. Vernon King Albert placed a wreath upon the sarcophagus of the nation's first chief executive. There was no more of pomp and ceremonial than when he visited the spots where lie Grant, Lincola and Roosevelt.

Landing first from the barges which carried them from the presidential yacht Mayflower, Vice President Marshall, the members of the cabinet and their wives preceded the Belgians to the tomb, awaiting there the coming of the king.

His Majesty uncovered as he approached the red brick structure in the face of which is a simple slab of white marble bearing the inscription:

"Within this inclosure rest the remains of General George Washington."

Then he lifted the huge wreath of yellow and white chrysanthemums which rested against the wall and stepped to the gate held open by an aged negro guard. Albert bowed at the entrance and then stepped within, placing the flowers upon the granite slab. Again he bowed this time more deeply and stepped backward from the portal. Queen and prince then made obeisance before the sarcophagus but no American stepped within the tomb. There was no other ceremony.

The trip down the Potomac river was one of the memorable events of the Belgian's tour. The king and his party were welcomed to the Mayflower with the ceremony the navy knows so well. When the motor cars carrying them entered the navy yard a gun barked the presidential salute and the standard of Belgium was hoisted as his majesty stepped aboard.

A Bo'sun's whistle piped its greeting and a band played the "Brabanconne." At the mast head was raised the flag of the vice pres'dent, made especially for the occasion.

As the Mayflower dropped anchor abreast Mount Vernon, a bugler sounded taps and the band

TELEGRAPHERS DEFER STRIKE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 29.—The twenty-one chairmen of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, in session here, late today decided not to order a strike vote among their 23,000 members before communicating with Director General of Railroads Hines.

A telegram was sent to Director General Hines apprising him of the purpose of the meeting and asking him to put the wage increase into effect at once. President E. J. Manion of the Railway Telegraphers stated in case he did not do this the chairmen had voted to order the strike at once. President Manion also announced that the chairmen would remain in session here until an answer had been received from Mr. Hines.

FINAL OF 46 CHANGES TO PACT KILLED

Moses' Proposal Dealing with Voting Power Loses 47 to 36.

LABOR SECTION NEXT ON SLATE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The 46 amendments attached to the peace treaty by the foreign relations committee passed into history today when the last survivor of the group, a proposal by Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire to revise voting strength in the league of nations was consigned to the discard in the senate by a vote of 47 to 36.

The senate then defeated two other amendments. One of them presented by Senator Sherman, Republican, of Illinois, and proposing to write into the treaty preamble a reference to the Deity was laid on the table by a vote of 57 to 27. The other, sponsored by Senator Johnson, Republican, California as a new solution for voting inequality in the league was killed outright by a count of 43 to 35.

At adjournment, however, the effort to hasten final action had brought up against an obstacle which seemed likely to prevent further progress for several days.

Tomorrow a determined group of senators will launch a fight to eliminate the labor section of the treaty, opening a debate which is expected by the leaders to last for at least a week.

The battle is expected to be the more spirited because it is regarded as holding out whatever hope remains of writing any amendment into the treaty.

The greater part of the days debate related to subjects aside from the matters directly under consideration. The labor section got the biggest share of attention, Senator LaFollette, Republican, Wisconsin, centering discussion about it with a three hour speech assailing the proposed international labor organization as filled with peril to American labor.

For a while when Senator Sherman's amendment was considered the debate got into the realm of literature and religion, Mr. Sherman, declaring Voltaire would have rejoiced to see the collection of Godless men who gathered at Versailles and Senator Lodge, Republican, Massachusetts, replying with Macbeth's exclamation: "I cannot say God bless us."

It would be a travesty, said Mr. Lodge, to invoke divine blessing on such a treaty.

The chair was unable to control the gallery when Senator Sherman saying he was not a member of any church got into a tilt with Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas.

"I have never prayed in my life——" said Mr. Sherman.

"Doesn't the senator think," interjected Senator Robinson, "that its about time he began?"

"No," Mr. Sherman shouted, while the galleries kept up a roar of laughter, "No not at the appearance of any such antagonist as the senator from Arkansas. I can take care of him myself."

ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH MATTOON ROBBERY

Chicago, Oct. 29.—A man who gave the name of Jesse Walker was arrested today as a suspect in connection with a burglary at Mattoon, Ill. Monday night when the robber beat Mr. and Mrs. J.N. Sternberg with a hammer. The police said the prisoner had pawned a fur coat, valued at $800 similar to one taken from the Sternberg home.

NAMED HIGH COMMISSIONER TO DANZIG

London, Oct. 29.—Sir Reginald Tower, formerly British minister to Argentine has been appointed temporary high commissioner at Danzig by the league of nations organization, it is learned here. He is expected to assume his duties about November 8.

U. S. MOVES TO MEET BIG WALKOUT

People of Country Will Be Protected from Distress.

WILSON CALLS GARFIELD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The government, confronted with refusal of the miners' organization to call off the strike of half a million soft coal workers ordered for Friday night, moved swiftly today to protect the people from great distress.

First of many steps to deal with a situation, admittedly critical probably will be these:

Ample police or other protection for miners willing to remain on the job as urged by President Wilson.

Revival of the fuel administration armed with full war time powers, to prevent hoarding and profiteering.

Allocation and distribution of coal to homes, railroads and essential industries.

Efforts to bring the strike to a speedy end thru mediation.

No Indictments at Present.

The government, however, will make no efforts to bring about indictment of the United Mine Workers of America who called the strike on charges of conspiracy to reduce production of a necessary product.

Government officials asserted tonight that reports from confidential sources showed that not all of the miners would strike, that public sentiment was overwhelmingly against the walkout at the beginning of winter and that duration of the strike would be brief.

Refusal of the miners' organization to withdraw the strike order was a distinct surprise to officials, who changed quickly from a hopeful to a fighting attitude. There was no disposition to dispute the right of men to strike, but officials were grimly determined to see that men who do not strike will be protected in and out of the mines, even if that means the presence of troops.

Garfield Called.

Before first word of rejection of the president's appeal reached here, federal machinery was being made ready to deal with conditions likely to arise in the coal fields. Fuel Administrator Garfield was summoned for a conference at the white house and until the very last he was strongly of the opinion that the strike would not take place.

When he went to the white house late in the day after the miners committee had spoken, it was to deal, however, with a different situation. Paramount consideration was given the promlem of keeping a volume of coal passing swiftly from mines to cities within the next few days and rounding up a civilian army that might be ready to work the mines.

The necessity of reviving the fuel administration was emphasized at various conference during the day.

Congresss Will Provide Funds.

Administration leaders said congress would have to provide immediate funds and assurances came from leaders of both houses it was stated, that all the money the government needed in the emergency would be provided speedily and cheerfully.

Clothed with its war time powers the fuel administration would be called upon to see that the coal supply is conserved and distributed as it was during the shortage two winters ago. Railroads must have first call with second consideration given essential industries, on which the public depends for comfort and warmth.

MILWAUKEE BONE DRY

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 29.—For the first time in its history Milwaukee is bone dry. All saloon keepers quit selling alcoholic drinks at midnight last night. Right up to 12 o'clock saloons were doing the greatest business ever known to them. Many saloons will attempt to keep open by the sale of soft drinks.

An armistice between automobile speed demons and the human race has been suggested.

Russia was the first of the nations to balk in the recent war, and now they have all that i s left of it.

Striking for their "altars and their fires" was not in it compared with the proposed strike against the fires.

It would be worth the time of any citizen of Jacksonville to drive out to Nichols Park and see where the waters will be backed up by the erection of the impounding dam. They will be more than ever convinced of the wisdom of the work being accomplished.

The Red Cross drive this year will be for a renewal of the memberships only. The vast amount of good accomplished by the organization, both world wide and locally, should make it a matter of pride to every citizen that they are members of such a society.

WOMEN CAN VOTE.

In the election next Tuesday it will be well to remember that women can vote on the three public policy questions. A great many people who have looked into the merits of these questions do not approve of them and feel that they would be dangerous included in the constitution of the state of Illinois. True, the approval of the questions at the polls i n this election does not make them a part of the constitution but would make it binding upon the consititutional convention to submit the questions as a part of the proposed constitution. Women have a right to vote and express their views on these questions next Tuesday.

Next Tuesday the people are to elect delegates to a convention charged with the duty of revising the state constitution. Adopted in 1870 the present document, in many points, of proven excellence, but time and conditions make necessary certain changes, and its revision is a work of the greatest importance. The completed work of that convention will, of course, be referred to the electorate.

The voters should recognize the importance of the work of electing these delegates and should use the utmost care in voting. The Republicans present the names of two good, representative men, Conklin and Patton, both of them men of mature age and splendid qualifications, by reason of education and familiarity with state affairs. They deserve election. Yet, as Gov. Lowden has stated in a recent letter addressed to the people of the state, it is a time when every voter should deem it a duty to go to the polls and vote for the men he deems best qualified for the work. Do your duty as a citizen of the great state of Illinois as, after investigation, you see it honestly and for the good of the state. Do your duty.

The Anti-Saloon League of this state is urging the people to defeat, at next Tuesday's election, the proposed public questions, the initiative and referendum and gateway league, calling attention to the fact that the propositions have received the endorsement of the United societies of Chicago, which has so long fought the battles of the liquor interests, The Champion, official organ of the retail liquor trade, and the state wide organization known as the Retail Liquor Dealers Protective association.

The Anti-Saloon league sees in the endorsement of the initiative and referendum by these organizations the fact that the adoption of these propositions means approval of the liquor interests plans for blocking enforcement of prohibition laws, as under their plans, with these measures, remedial legislation could be held up for eighteen months, and during that period the dry laws would be inoperative. If delegates to the constitutional convention are to be bound to follow the program of any one class they will never be able to frame a basic law which will pass muster at the polls, and there is every reason why delegates should be left free to exercise their own judgment.

NATIONALIZATION OF MINES.

While the public has a very serious interest in the outcome of the proposed strike of bituminous coal miners, yet there seems to be much more to it than an economic upheaval for increased pay and shorter hours. The Globe-Democrat says "that it should not be forgotten that the convention of the United Mine Workers of America, held at Cleveland in September, which formulated the demands upon which the impending strike is based, and adopted a resolution proposing the nationalization of the coal mines, the mines to be operated by the Federal Government and "the mine workers to be given an equal representation upon such councils or commissions as may be delegated the authority to administer the affairs of the coal mining industry.' It was also decided to support the Plumb plan for the nationalization of the railroads 'provided the railroad brotherhoods pledge themselves to continue the fight with equal vigor for the nationalization of mines.' Nothing is being said about this proposal now in connection with the strike, but the strike was ordered and the nationalization proposal was adopted by the same body of delegates at the same time, and the public is fully justified in associating them as a single movement. A report from Washington says the coal miners have been pledged the support of the four railroad brotherhoods if the government attempts to work the mines. This may or may not be true, and if true the word 'support' may be interpreted in different ways. But there can be little doubt that these two great groups of workers, having decided to labor for the nationalization of their respective industries are in sympathy if not in co-operation. Nor can it be doubted that the economic demands of both of them have some relation to the political program they have adopted. The public has a very great interest in this matter, too great to be measured in dollars and cents."

Rippling Rhymes

WINDS

The wind of spring is joyous, as pleasantly it floats; it never does annoy us with ghastly, wailing notes. It seems to bring a rumor of blue and crystal seas; and with buoyant humor it swishes through the trees. We never hear it screaming, as though with stomach ache; it helps us in our dreaming, and soothes us when we wake. The sizzling wind of summer blows morals galley west; and clargymen and plumber denounce it, with the rest. Tumultuous and torrid, it goes its burning way, and makes us think up horrid and beastly things to say. The woozy wind of winter has little helpful use; evangelist and printer, berate it like the deuce. It numbs our nerves and senses as from the north it skids; it adds to our expenses, and makes ussoak our lid$. But oh, the wind of autumn It seems to sigh, my friends, of woe that has no bottom, of pain that never ends. It wails around my cottage, what time the daylight dies, when I am tired of swattage, and chasing of the flies. Now hastily, now slowly, it whimpers overhead; there's nothing so unholy, so weird, so full of dread. It sighs, in haunted crannies, of long dead men and maids, of old forgotten grannies, who walked the earth as shades.

THE RABJOHNS WILL FILED

The will of tht late Charles Rabjohns was filed Wednesday for probate in the office of County Clerk George L. Riggs. The will, which is very brief document, was drawn October 29, 1917, just two years before the date of its filing. By the will Mr. Rabjohns divides all of his property equally among his children, Mrs. May Chancy, Miss Jennie Rabjohns, Joel, Alexander and Walter Rabjohns. The will names Miss Jennie Rabjohns and Alexander Rabjohns to serve as executioners without bond.

THE WEATHER

Heard anybody complain of dust lately? The big rain Sunday and Monday poured more than five inches of water on the ground and the hope was that it would let up for a while and people started out yesterday morning in that belief only to be disappointed, for while the rain wasn't heavy it was drizzly and made things very uncomfortable. If the new dam were in shape the whole reservoir would have been nearly if not quite filled.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

TWO CORRECTIONS AND ADDITIONS

By Ensley Moore
(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

The "O. J." man does not claim to be very wise about anything; but he does aim to be as nearly correct as possible, and would rather make a correction than a mistake. Some "corrections" are not always such. But some people are dependable enough for one to accept their advices. Among such are Major Geo. M. McConnel, formerly of Jacksonville and Chicago, now of Alabama, and Mr. Hardin G. Keplinger of Franklin, Morgan County, this state.

From Major McConnel.

In the Journal of October 2, 1919, in this series of papers, appeared "Two stars in our horizon"—one being U. S. Senator James A. McDougall, of California. He was a brother-in-law of Major McConnel.

In a letter dated October 22, 1919, Major McConnel, wrote:—

"I beg to thank you for your recent contribution to your 'Old Jacksonville' papers with note of Lamborn and McDougall. * * * As to McDougall your note is both kindly and just. * * * Your information about him is rather at fault in some particulars. He was Attorney-General of Illinois as stated, but it is a mistake to say "he engaged in engineering" after that. My recollection is that he went directly from Springfield, after his attorney-generalship, to Chicago, where he formed co-partnership with Ebenezer Peck (who was afterwards a Judge of the Court of Claims in Washington) and practiced law there till he organized and led the expedition to California, via the Gila river. But he never was a gold seeker. He took up the practice of the law in San Francisco on arrival, and was a leader there. I do not think he was in the California legislature, certainly not for "several terms." There was not time for being Attorney-General of California and 'several terms' in the legislature between 1850 and 1852, when he was elected to Congress. He and John McDougall, who married my younger sister, were not related in the remotest degree, and never even saw each other."

The "O. J." writer got some of his supposed information from the "Cyclopedia of American Biography" published by Appletons, about 1886.

From Mr. Keplinger.

The following part of a letter from Mr. H. G. Keplinger explains itself:—

"Franklin, Ill., Oct. 27, 1919.
Mr. Ensley Moore,
Dear Sir:—

I was interested in your article in the Jacksonville Journal of 23rd, inst., in regard to early history of Franklin and vicinity. * * * There are some errors to to which I will call your attention.

General Rinaker was not raised by my father. His parents, who lived in Baltimore, died in a cholera epidemic when he was a small child, and he with another orphan boy" was brought to Sangamon county by a man. "Rinaker, while still quite a small boy, left him and for some years made his home with William Caldwell, near Franklin, until Caldwell removed to Kentucky, where young Rinaker took up his home with W. C. Clayton, a neighbor of my father. He attended Illinois and McKendree Colleges, and married my sister, who now lives in Carlinville.

You are also in error in saying I was a lieutenant in the 32nd Ill. My brother L. W., now of Kansas City, was a lieutenant in that regiment.

I served as a private in the Hardin Light Guards in (April-July) 1861. Then as private, corporal and sergeant Co. A, 32nd Ill., and later as Adjutant of the 122nd Ill. Infantry.

Any history of the early settlement of Franklin and vicinity would be incomplete which did not mention the Burch, Burnett, Caldwell, Wright, Luttrell and Seymour families, and others I might name, whose descendants are yet living here; to say nothing of others who were here at an early day but moved to other localities.

Thanking you for marked copy of the Journal,

Yours truly,
H. G. KEPLINGER."

In this case again, some of this writer's information was not so correct as he supposed it to be. So Mr. Keplinger's letter explains and adds to what was written in the "O. J." article about Franklin.

SEEKS MARRIAGE ANNULMENT

In the office of Circuit Clerk Boston Wednesday a bill for annulment of marriage was filed by W. E. Thomson, acting as attorney for Floyd F. Angelo. The suit is actually brought by Homer Winter as next friend of the complainant, who is not of legal age. The complainant seeks the annulment of his marriage to Bertha M. Wilmeth Angelo. It is set forth that the marriage was contracted after certain false statements made by the defendant and that since her marriage the defendant has been unfaithful.

DUCK HUNTING NEAR HOME

For a few days past quite a number of wild ducks have been found on the new reservoir and several sportsmen have gone out and bagged a number. For some time occasional strays have been seen on the lake at Nichols park, but shooting anywhere on that ground is rigidly forbidden no matter what the game. Of course so near the city, ducks cannot be expected on the new lake in any great number. A gentleman who has had much experience said he went down to Meredosia and saw hosts of wild ducks, but the decoy had no attractions for them and they couldn't be shot.

RECOMMEND RATIONING OF CONFECTIONS

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Recommendation that some department of the United States government be given 'absolute power to ration candy and sweet drink manufacturers" in order to cut down their consumption of sugar "and so protect householders" was made today by George A. Zabriskie, president of the United States sugar equalization board in a letter to Attorney General Palmer. "The government is faced with two alternative sugar policies," said Mr. Zabriskie. "One involves the continuance of absolute control by the entry into and agreement with European governments for the joint purchase of the dominant Cuban crop and the allocation of the remainder to certain governments as was done last year.

"The other method is to cease all government control of sugar and permit the establishment of free trade. This might result in large price increase at least temporarily, as there is undoubtedly a large amount of speculation and even hoarding in process, all in anticipation of further rises."

Beauty Answers

By MADAME MAREE

STRENGTHENING and enlarging the roots of the hair is one of the real secrets of forcing hair to grow, something which has heretofore not been fully realized. Merely stimulating the surface tissue of the scalp will not stimulate the hair growth to the extent desired. By the new method just mentioned hair can be forced to grow several inches a month. Hair will stop falling as if by magic. The new vigor of the hair will be quickly noticed, and all bald spots will be soon entirely filled out with new sprouts. This can all be easily obtained by the simple use of beta-quinol which can be secured at any drug store in the original one-ounce package for 50 cents. This can be easily mixed at home with a half pint of bay rum and a half pint of water. It contains no oil whatever.

KISS YEARS—On the contrary, removing wrinkles is easy, very easy astonishingly easy. And it takes but two or three minutes a day and a few cents expense. That you can do it surely and posttively will be proven to you absolutely in your mirror in a few days. I dare say, nothing has ever been known to produce such results as by the formula which I give you here. From your druggist get two ounces of aptol, which will cost 50 cents, and mix with one tablespoonful of glycerine in half a pint of water. Mix thoroughly. The cream that results should be used very liberally and every day. Quickly you will notice the little wrinkles, deep wrinkles, crows' feet and heavy lines giving way before an ever increasing plumpness of the skin,—and years seem literally to be taken from the face.

ALL OVER—It is the easiest thing you can imagine to get rid of blackheads. They can be removed in a few minutes—and if you doubt it, just get some powdered neroxin at the drug store for fifty cents, sprinkle some of it on a wet cloth and rub it on the blackheads. Then look in the mirror and try to see them—you'll be surprised

Dress Shields Gone To Stay

—is opinion of well known modiste on subject vital to every woman

"Dress shields are a thing of the past," said a well-known modiste yesterday when interviewed at her hotel in French Lick.

"I know of no change," she continued, "which has been such a relief to women in general as the banishment of the cumbersome dress shields, which were really not sanitary. My patrons tell me how simple the care of the underarms and prevention of excessive perspiration has become, so that dress shields are no longer necessary.

"From gray-haired matron to the youngest debutante, all seem to have absolute confidence in ODORONO, the one toilet preparation which I myself have found assures absolute personal daintiness.

With this danger of ruining gowns eliminated, I sell the better-looking out fine-textured dresses, to patrons who formerly were afraid to invest because of perspiration difficulties."

ODORONO, quoted by this modiste, is the leading toilet preparation for relief from excessive perspiration, and the sure means to perfect daintiness. It was prepared by a physician, and is endorsed by medical authorities. Be sure you get the genuine ODORONO. At all druggists and department stores. Sixty cents and $1.00. Trial size, 30 cents.

Col. George H. Huntoon has just returned to his home in Chicago after an extended visit at Enfield, N. H. Both Col and Mrs. Huntoon spend a part of each year at this eastern city.

TRAINMEN WILL STAY ON JOBS

Chicago, Oct. 29.—John P. McFarland, a local official of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, today declared that the strike recently announced as called for tomorrow in the Chicago district would not involve the trainmen's organization. The lodges, he said, were loyal to the organization which had called no strike.

"A number of men, acting on their own initiative held an unofficial meeting and sent their demands to Washington," Mr. McFarland explained.

FEW DEVELOPMENTS IN STEEL STRIKE

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Operation of the United States Steel Corporations huge rail mill at Gary, Ind., on a twenty-four hour basis, beginning tonight announced by officials, and end of the strike at the Standard Steel Car Company at Hommand, Ind., which began July 18, were nearly the only developments today in the steel strike in the Chicago district.

Officials reported more men returning to work at Gary today. The rail mill with a capacity of 2,000 tons daily resumed operation Monday on a twelve hour shift, but officials said conditions now permitted it being manned the full 24 hours.

The Standard Steel Car Company is an independent concern which succeeded in operating during the strike.

Serious trouble was averted in South Chicago tonight when the police in response to a riot call charged a crowd of negroes, employes of the Illinois Steel Company and arrested four of the leaders, two of whom were armed, after one striker had been fired on and others menaced by the negroes who were on a march thru South Chicago.

We have filled up nearly 80,000 cubic yards of trenches. We have rebuilt 100 miles of railroads, 600 bridges and 700 miles of waterways."

SIMPLE HOME REMEDY ADVISED FOR ROSE AND HAY FEVER

Anyone Can Make a Pint for Trifling Sum and Used in Time May Prevent Annual Attack.

"No matter how severe your yearly attack be.

No matter how distressing or humiliating—

Its intensity can be reduced to a harmless, mildness," says a Kentucky druggist who believes from what he has seen that this simple home made remedy is a most important discovery.

He has seen the most severe and apparently unconquerable cases reduced to what might be called a mild cold in twenty-four hours.

In many cases where the patient started treatment a week or ten days before the expected attack the unwelcome yearly visitor failed to appear with anything like its usual intensity.

People who want to try this new treatment can make a pint in a few minutes.

Pour one ounce of Mentholized Arcine into a pint bottle then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled. Gargle daily as directed and snuff or spray the nostrils twice daily.

That's all there is to the treatment which so many sufferers have found to be a true friend.

Mentholized Arcine in one ounce vials is dispensed by all the better pharmacies.

played the "Star Spangled Banner."

The Mayflower carried more than 200 passengers and luncheon was served on the way down the river. From the tomb their majesties and the prince were taken to the historic colonial mansion where Washington lived and died. They viewed the relics of the great American with more than passing interest and her majesty, a student of art, described as "wonderful" Houdan's bust of Washington.

Then they were escorted about the flower gardens, the kitchen, laundry and coach house.

Queen Elizabeth clambored into the ancient carriage in which Washington rode with Martha Custis.

A huge seaplane circled over the grounds while the party strolled about and two other naval aircraft followed the Mayflower far down the river from Washington.

The Royal Belgians were the guests tonight at a formal dinner given in their honor by Secretary and Mrs. Lansing.

UNION OFFICIALS DECLARE MINERS' STRIKE INEVITABLE

Lever food control act, Mr. Brewster said the operators would cooperate with the government to the fullest extent in continuing production of coal.

Will Support Government.

"Whatever steps the government sees fit to take in the prospective crisis, the operators will support to the fullest extent," Mr. Brewster stated. "We cannot operate the mines of our own accord if the men walk out. Law in certain states provide for the status of miners and without government intervention we cannot put anybody to work to fill the strikers' places.

"Enforcement of the food and fuel control act is, in my opinion the only possible way by which the crisis can be averted. The operators realize the suffering a strike at this time would bring on the country and we are overanxious that it be prevented."

Discussing the report that the operators would meet in Cleveland Friday, Mr. Brewster said:

"While the operators have been holding themselves in readiness to confer on the situation I have not been advised as to the reported meting in Cleveland Friday."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Advices reached the state department today stating that Senor Mestre, attorney for William O. Jenkins, the American consular agent in Puebla, Mexico, who was kidnapped and ransomed for $150,000 had been arrested charged with complicity in the kidnapping.

State department officials regard the arrest of Mestre and the charges officially made in Mexico that Jenkins was in a plot to be kidnapped and ransomed for a large sum as another example of the Mexican government policy to attempting to cloud the issue by raising false issues in the endeavor to cover up the inefficiency of the government in protecting foreign and national thruout Mexico.

Skin Eruption Causes Unbearable Itching

Scratching Increases the Irritation of the Delicate Skin Tissue

You can claw your nails into your skin until it bleeds, in an effort to obtain relief from the fiery itching and burning caused by skin diseases, but you only increase the irritation and pain.

And you can pour ointments, salves and lotions by the gallon on the irritated parts, without obtaining anything but temporary relief. Just as soon as the strength of the counter irritant give out, your pain and torture will return with increased violence, because these local remedies have not reached the source of the trouble.

The real source of all skin disease is the blood supply. The blood becomes infected with some impurity, and the disease germs break out through the delicate tissues of the skin. They may appear as eczema, tetter, boils, pimples, scaly eruptions, caused by disease germs in the blood.

The real cure, therefore, must be directed through the blood. And no remedy has yet been discovered that equals S. S. S. for any disorder of the blood. This great old remedy rids the blood of every trace of disease germs, and clears up the complexion and gives it the ruddy glow of perfect health. Get a bottle at your drug store today and you will soon be rid of your tormenting skin trouble. S. S. S. to write at once for expert medical advice regarding your own case. GH LIVING COSTS NOT AT ALL MODERN g Time Resident of St. Louis ells About Prices That Fol- owed War of Rebellion.

he Northwestern Miller in a nt issue gives an interesting r from Mr. Charles Espen- ed,, a retired resident of St. is who presents some figures how that the high cost of liv- is not a new question. Mr. enschied turns back the pages istory for something over fifty rs and shows that the prices of modities after the war of the ellion were much higher than . The letter and the intro- tory paragraph from the Northwestern Miller are printed herewith.

It is the fashion to rail at and bemoan the present high cost of living, or as Mr. James J. Hill used to put it in his terse way, "the cost of high living." In order to compare present prices with those prevailing under similar conditions and due to a similar cause, loss of man-power diverted from productive to destructive purposes, it is necessary to go back, in this country, to the time immediately following the close of the Civil War.

Unfortunately, few living Americans recall exactly and precisely what commodities cost in those happy days, those "good old days" that, because they are past and gone, are enveloped in a purely fictitious haze which serves to camouflage the fact that they were by no means good to the wage-earner or the man on a salary.

In speaking of this recently, Mr. Charles Espenschied, formerly a miller of Hastings, Minnesota, now retired and residing in St. Louis, casually mentioned what certain things cost in 1865, and the editor of The Northwestern Miller, somewhat startled at the figures given, and afraid that Mr. Espenschied unconsciously exaggerated them, requested him to refresh his memory, consult his records and give the results in writing for the benefit of the readers hereof. In response Mr. Espenschied has kindly written the letter which follows :

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 5, 1919.
Editor The Northwestern Miller,

Sir: A little ancient history may not be out of place at this time, and possibly be some comfort to those who suffer from the H.C.L. In 1865 I went to work in a retail grocery here. My first job was to grind sugar. This came in hogsheads of about a ton weight. It was raw; just as it came from the sugar mills of Louisiana, and was called New Orleans sugar. Little was known of refined sugar; we only heard of the loaf sugar imported from Europe. This sugar, by the time it reached us, had caked and run into lumps, in spite of the canes that were inserted when it was packed. It was my job to break these lumps and run it through a pair of rolls, thus to make a "lively" looking mixture; the bottom of the cask was soggy with the unextracted syrup, and unsalable in that state.

The first sale I made of this sugar was at twenty-five cents a pound. I well remember the excitement it created when we posted up the sign "five pounds for a dollar."

Flour, for which we paid eighteen dollars per barrel, we retailed at twenty dollars.

Yellow laundry soap, twenty-five cents a small bar.

Starch, twenty-five cents a pound; nutmegs, five cents apiece; currants, seventy-five cents a pound; prunes, fifty cents; green Rio coffee, fifty cents, when we could get it.

Best tea, two dollars and sixty cents a pound.

Day laborers received two dollars and fifty cents for ten hours' work.

The first pair of boots I bought (boots have since gone out of fashion) I paid eighteen dollars for. Shoes for children and boots for youths were "copper toed" to conserve leather.

Cotton "prints" were forty cents a yard.

From this time on (say 1868), prices steadily declined and culminated in the panic of 1873.

When I first went to housekeeping here, in 1874, I had "graduated" into the wholesale business by that time. We paid eighty-five cents a pound for creamery butter. As the supply was limited, the grocer with whom we traded could only "allocate" to us a pound or so a week. Other kinds, so-called farmer's or dairy butter, sold for much less, with quality accordingly.

So you see, we are much better off than they were in those days. They had no automobiles, electric lights, telephones or movies, for all of which we should be duly thankful.

Respectfully,
Charles Espenschied.

Ella Ewing Circle Met With Miss Grace Filson

The home of Mr. W. C. Green, 1009 West State street, was the scene of much merriment Tuesday evening, when Miss Grace Filson was hostess to the Ella Ewing Mission Circle of the Central Christian church for a Hallowe'en party.

Sometime ago a contest was held by the Circle and the Reds were victorious over the Blues, therefore, the latter had the pleasure of entertaining the former with Miss Filson as hostess.

The house was appropriately decorated for the occasion. All of the guests were masked, their costumes being humorous as well as beautiful. Among them were a colored "mammy", ghosts, Colonial dame, Red Cross nurses, and a fashionable colored personage who made quite a "Hitte".

After all were assembled, a mock wedding took place, in which "fair" Eleanor became the bride of Brunty. The ring ceremony was used. Various contests to determine the fortunes of the company afforded the chief amusement. Dainty refreshments were served which consisted of popcorn balls, pumpkin pie a la mode and coffee.

The gymnasium was appropriately decorated in Hallowe'en style and the whole presented a very attractive appearance.

The following was the program:

Guidance thru Hades by ghosts.
Grand March.
Unmasking.
Conversational Period.
Peanut hunt. This contest was won by George Craig.

A track meet followed the peanut hunt and was participated in by the Wierd Witches, Galloping Goblins, Black Cats, Blind Bats and the Gruesome Ghosts. Despite keen competition the Gruesome Ghosts won the track meet.

Then came a realistic ghost story by Coach Raymond Hufford. Following the story the entire gathering passed around the room to view the "remains."

A Special Representative of the Range Eternal Co.

will be with us all this week and will give ABSOLUTELY FREE a Set of Aluminum Ware to each purchaser of a Range Eternal

Why You Need the Range Eternal

Everlastingly Good

DURABILITY—Rust-proof tops, and rust-proof flues, are the chief reasons for the superior durability of the Range Eternal. The Range Eternal user has no fear of rust and corrosion, for Range Eternal tops and flues actually are rust-proof. And Range Eternals are constructed from unbreakable malleable iron and Wellsville polished steel—which give Range Eternal users a lifetime of perfect kitchen service.

CONVENIENCE—The great big copper-lined reservoir, pouch feed, poker door, the duplex grates, interchangeable anchor plates, the open thermometer and sanitary high closets, are a few of the reasons why Range Eternal users call it "the most convenient range."

ECONOMY—Range Eternals require less fuel, because every seam is sealed by rivets or by welding. No chance for heat to leak out, or cold air to leak in in the Range Eternal. Not a speck of putty is used, because puttied ranges can never be air-tight ranges. The hot blast and other features, also add to the ecenomy of the Range Eternal.

BEAUTY—It is an old saying that "Handsome is as handsome does," but the Range Eternal is more than this, for its appearance as well as its performance is unusually attractive. The clean velvety black top (Range Eternal tops don't rust), shining nickel and polished steel, make the Range Eternal a source of pride to every woman who loves a clean, attractive kitchen.

INTEREST INCREASES IN BAPTIST REVIVAL

Largest Audience of Week Heard Rev. Mr. Yule Wednesday Night — Second Coming of Christ Subject This Afternoon and Friday Afternoon.

A great deal of interest was again manifested at the revival service held at First Baptist church Wednesday evening. The attendance is growing larger each evening and the indications are that the services will be productive of great good in the community. Rev. Mr. Yule took for his subject Wednesday evening the subject "The Greatest Detective in the World." his text being "Be sure your sins will find you out; the way of the transgressor is hard." A few of the thoughts brought out at the service last night are given herewith:

It is exceedingly hard to get away from wrong. No one can escape the great detective—sin—and its consequences. Sin is self-recording. How many say "It won't get me" and yet multitudes suffer the terrible consequences of sin. Sin spells unrighteousness. Christ spells holiness. Sin is no joke with God. Environment is no remedy for sin, neither is reformation, or resolution or science. No man can wash sin away.

The gift of God is eternal life. Christ is the great remedy for sin.

At the close of the sermon one person came forward and expressed an intention to lead a better life. It was announced Wednesday evening that the general subject for the 3 o'clock meeting this afternoon and Friday afternoon will be "The Second Coming of Christ." It is hoped that a large audience will be present to hear Rev. Mr. Yule present this great subject.

MORTON SCHOOL HAS BRIGHT PUPILS

Show High Grade of Intelligence —School Suffers from Tramps Because of Proximity to Railroad—The Pupils.

Located about three miles east of the city and unfortunately near the Wabash railroad track is the Morton school ably taught by Miss Elizabeth Connolly. The writer said unfortunately located along the railroad track and surely it is unfortunate for weary Willies, using tie passes are attracted by the building which affords them a place for shelter if admittance can be gained and it has been gained in many shameful ways, breaking locks, smashing windows, breaking pieces out of doors and the like.

It would be fine if a man could be stationed there with a shotgun every night for a year or two and make an example of every marauder. Possibly the building would fare better, but of course it is hardly practicable.

The directors, Messrs. James Rawlings, Logan Black and R. E. Phillips are very good to furnish supplies, Miss Connolly said, but only too often said supplies have been depleted, destroyed and removed by thieves. Some trees would help out the lot most wonderfully but the directors have litte heart to do much improving.

Even the library, Miss Connolly said, has not escaped the burglars. They have a good organ, two or three pictures, some maps and charts, not in very good order, and a building that is all right. It has concrete basement and hot air furnace, good lighting and the teacher showed with pardonable pride some desks already ordered at a good price and ahead of anything the writer has seen anywhere in the country. They are individual desks with a chair instead of the ordinary arrangement and the most advanced of the kind the writer has found in either town or country. They will be pardoned for putting on considerable airs when the new furniture arrives and they hope it will come very soon.

The writer enjoyed his visit there a great deal. Like some other schools, the pupils average rather small but all were tidy and very well behaved. One thing must be said; certain questions are put to each school visited and Carl Trent answered two which have not been answered by the pupils of any school visited. Other questions were answered fairly well and at the close of the talk the pupils asked a good number of questions considering how few of any size were present.

The visit was very much enjoyed and it will be a pleasure to go back when the new furniture is in. The teacher said they meant to try keep housebreakers out. The pupils are:

Boys—Carl Trent, Edward Maddox, Harold Black, Francis Kelly, Russel Kelly, Wendall Rawlings, Donald Coker, Delmar DeFrates, Wilbur Kelly, Willie Hayes, Leslie Decker, Paul Moellar, Dale Webster Story.

Girls—Anna Dowling, Ethel Walker, Evelyn Perkins, Audrey Moy, Mary Elizabeth Phillips, Nadine Perkins, Mary Isabel Smith, Lucile Trent, Frances Winona Rawlings.

THE GOOD ROADS SERVICE COMPANY

Remarkable Improvement in the Marking of Public Highways.

Walter H. Miller, representing the Good Roads Service Co. of 30 North LaSalle street, Chicago, was in the city yesterday looking over the ground and taking notes. His company performs a unique and highly valuable service for designated highways and has done a great deal in the state of Iowa and considerable in Illinois. One highly attractive feature of the company's work is that it is done without cost to persons living along the highways. The plan of the company is to have steel posts at suitable distances, well coated with non-rust material and prepared with a device at the end so that the post cannot be removed or turned around.

The post is of suitable height with places on it for the marking of one or two highways and at a cross roads for the name of the town nearest by. It has a special device for crossroads also indicating the direction the traveler should take. The way the company gets its pay is by placing on top of the posts a large, circular disc on which advertisements are painted, rubber tires for instance occupying a prominent part.

In towns at suitable places are set posts in concrete and having on top a four-sided arrangement giving travelers full directions which way to go, and naming the adjacent towns. The posts are neat and ornamental and would adorn any highway.

Mr. Miller says his company has posted a great many miles in Iowa and their work has given great satisfaction. The young gentleman was for some years a student at Illinois college and will be pleasantly remembered by many here. He remained only a short time and failed to find some men whom he was especially anxious to see but said he would be back again in a few months. He hopes to do a lot of posting in this vicinity.

THOROBREDS OFFERED AT JOINT STOCK SALE

First Event Under Direction of Morgan County Breeders Association Very Successful.

The first combination sale of thorobred livestock ever held in Morgan county took place Wednesday at the A. F. Franks barn on North Main street. The sale was arranged by the Morgan County Breeders' association and was a success. It was only about two weeks ago that the breeders arranged for this sale, but it was well advertised and the further fact that the public has entire confidence in the management resulted in a large attendance and satisfactory prices.

It is the intention to hold other such sales in days to come and probably on a more extensive scale. The auctioneers were C. Justus Wright, Charles M. Strawn and J. L. Henry, and all of them did excellent work. The clerks were S. J. Camm and H. E. Kitner. Following is a list of sales and the name of the owner of each animal is also given. WHEN you think of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) you visualize instantly gasoline, kerosene and lubricating oil.

True, these are the three fundamental products of manufacture, but the Company is proud of the fact that its service enters your life by many other doors.

Standard Oil Company (Indiana) service, by keen initiative and ceaseless effort, is able to supply you with more than 2000 useful products, all made from petroleum.

The humble paraffin which seals your jelly glasses against the inroads of ferments, and the asphalt which covers the streets you drive upon, are by-products of petroleum, and there are hundreds of others, all servants of your daily needs.

Scores of other products, each vital to some specific industry, which in turn supplies you with needed merchandise, are made, wholly or in part, from portions of the crude oil which otherwise would be waste.

Standard Oil Company (Indiana) products are delivered by a network of stations and distribution systems, so complete that every hamlet of the Middle West is supplied.

Notwithstanding the wide range of Standard Oil Company (Indiana) service, the Company is constantly striving to increase the number of useful products, and to intensify its service, so that it may fulfill to the utmost its obligation as a public servant.

DR. BLACK RETURNS FROM EASTERN TRIP

Visits Washington on Red Cross Work And New York in Connection With American College of Surgeons Meeting.

Dr. Carl E. Black has returned from a very important trip to the east and has gained much thereby. While he went to Washington to meet Colonel Edward Capps and others connected with the great mission of mercy to Greece and contiguous territory to confer relative to the project by the Red Cross to send a corps of trained nurses to a nurses' training school to be established at Athens. It is the intention to send a dietician, a superintendent of nurses and several educated nurses of the first quality. All continental Europe is quite deficient in the qualifications demanded of nurses and even England, the best abroad, is not up to the United States. In this country a young lady must have educational qualifications before she can enter a registered nurses' training school, and must then have a three years' course and stand examinations before she can be recognized by the medical profession as one duly qualified to ply her calling and it is the intention to raise this standard in Greece. There are approximately one hundred hospitals in that land of eight million people and the country is well up in the number and should have better qualified nurses.

Another visit by the doctor was in the New York city where he attended the meetings of the American College of Surgeons. While there he enjoyed clinics during the day; that is the privilege of witnessing operations by eminent surgeons or their treatment of patients. The evening's were devoted to discussions of the cases and topics generally pertaining to the profession. From each state the College of Surgeons has a committee all of whom form a general committee on the standardization of hospitals with a hundred beds or more and of these there are 671 in the U. S. and Canada. Dr. Black represents Illinois on the committee.

It is to inspect all such hospitals whose management are willing and report on their condition at the meeting next year. They will be ranked A B and C according to condition. Reports will be made at the 1920 meeting. Owing to war conditions no detailed report has been made in this respect but it is expected to have it ready by the next year's meeting. Hospitals whose managers decline to have inspection will be marked as C.

The college also hopes to be able to take up the inspection of hospitals having forty to a hundred beds and report these on a two year plan. The great object is to see that the service, equipment and general work of hospitals in the land are carried on in good shape. The refusal of any hospital to be inspected will set it down as low grade.

THIEVES ROB POST OFFICE AT BARROW

Federal Building is Visited by Robbers Tuesday Night or Wednesday Morning — Alsey Bloodhounds Fail to Pick up Any Trail.

The post office at Barrow, four miles north of White Hall was robbed during the night Tuesday or at an early hour Wednesday morning. The looting of the federal building was not discovered until Postmaster Burns came to open the office yesterday morning about 7:30 o'clock. The front door of the building had been forced and the intruder or intruders succeeded in gaining entrance without arousing any of the residents of the village.

Postmaster Burns immediately locked the office up and secured bloodhounds from Alsey. The dogs were unable to pick up a trail from the office however, and it may be that the robbers made their get-away in a motor car.

A small amount of change was taken by the thieves and a number of War Savings Stamps were also stolen. It happened that Tuesday night Mr. Burns took all of his postage stamps home with him and for this reason none of the stamps were lost.

Postmaster J. E. Wyatt of White Hall was notified and will go to Barrow this morning to make an investigation and an inventory of the office in order to ascertain exactly what the loss is. The White Hall post office is the central accounting office of the government postal department for Greene county and therefore Mr. Wyatt will act in an official capacity in making the inventory.

Every effort was made by the authorities to secure some trace of the thieves, or to find some clue which would lead to their identity, but absolutely all trace of them had been effectually covered up and there was nothing to show from whence they came or which way they headed.

Barrow is located on the main line of the Burlington railroad between Winchester and White Hall. It is about ten miles south and a trifle east of Winchester.

RED CROSS WORKERS BEING ORGANIZED

Business Section Campaigners Under Leadership of R. E. Thompson — Mrs. King Announces Ward Captains and Assistants.

Plans for the Red Cross membership campaign for next week are rapidly being made. Workers for the business section of Jacksonville are being organized under the leadership of R. F. Thompson of the Woolworth ten cent store. As most of the business houses last year were 100 per cent, every member of the establishment being Red Cross members, one day will probably suffice to canvass the downtown section.

Mrs. Lillian King, who is organizing the four wards and South Jacksonville, announces the following captains and their assistants:

First ward—Mrs. John Ferry, Mrs. J. P. Meany.

Second ward—Mrs. J. W. Cleary, Mrs. A. Weihl.

Third ward—Mrs M. D. Shanahan.

Fourth ward—Mrs. J. H. Danskin, Miss Mary Wadsworth.

South Jacksonville—Mrs. Ben Lurton.

It is expected that a luncheon will be served Saturday noon of this week for the workers in the county and other members of the campaign committee. It is possible that E. E. Crabtree, the state chairman, will be in Jacksonville on that day and will be able to give the workers some sound advice.

Monday night of next week there will probably be a meeting of all city workers and the work the Red Cross has been and is now doing in Morgan county will be explained in detail to the solicitors.

TAKE ASPIRIN ONLY AS TOLD BY "BAYER"

"Bayer" Introduced Aspirin to the Physicians Over 18 Years Ago.

To get quick relief follow carefully the safe and proper directions in each unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin." This package is plainly stamped with the safety "Bayer Cross."

The "Bayer Cross" means the genuine, world-famous Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over eighteen years.

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" can be taken safely for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Joint Pains, Neuritis, and Pain generally.

Handy tin boxes of 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

Why Druggists Recommend Swamp-Root

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

It is a physician's prescription.

Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Jacksonville Journal.—Adv.

DEWS OF EVE

No More Gentle Than "Cascarets" for the Liver, Bowels

It is just as needless as it is dangerous to take violent or nasty cathartics. Nature provides no shock-absorbers for your liver and bowels against calomel, harsh pills, sickening oil and salts. Cascarets give quick relief without injury from Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Gases and Sick Headache. Cascarets work while you sleep, removing the toxins, poisons and sour, indigestible waste without griping or inconvenience. Cascarets regulate by strengthening the bowel muscles. They cost so little, too.

GEORGE W. CHITTICK PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY

Prominent Cass County Man Dies in Chair in Pacific Hotel Lobby —Had Been in Ill Health for Several Years.

Death came suddenly to George W. Chittick of Virginia at the Pacific hotel about 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. Mr. Chittick died while seated in a chair in the hotel lobby.

He had been talking with Eugene D. Pyatt a few moments before. Some one nearby noticed a peculiar pallor on Mr. Chittick's face and called the attenton of the office force to it. Dr. Norris was hastily summoned but Mr. Chittick was dead when he arrived.

The body was removed to O'Donnell's undertaking parlors where Coroner Rose empanelled a jury and held an inquist at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The jury was composed of A. J. Oliver, foreman; Samuel Massey, Fred W. Sibert, Thomas Stevenson, J. E. Ross and W. W. Walker, clerk.

The jury heard the testimony of E. D. Pyatt, E. A. Brennan, president of the New Pacific hotel company, H. H. Conover, a son-in-law, Ray E. Simmons and F. W. Sweighart, traveling salesmen, both of Springfield. After hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict that death resulted from organic heart disease.

It developed from the testimony that Mr. Chittick had been in ill health for a number of years. He had only recently returned from Colorado Springs were he went in the hope of receiving relief.

George W. Chittick was born in Cass county, August 10, 1862, and was 57 years of age at the time of death. He was united in marriage to Miss Nettie Carney of Prentice in 1901 who survives. He also leaves one daughter, Mrs. H. H. Conover, Virginia; one sister, Mrs. H. L. Wyatt, Murrayville, and one brother, J. C. Chittick of Cass county.

Mr. Chittick followed the occupation of farming for many years and was one of the prominent and successful men of Cass county. He had acquired large land holdings and together with his son-in-law farmed on a large scale. He served as county commissioner of Cass county for six years. He was a member of the M. E. church and a man highly regarded in his home community.

THE OBSERVATORY

King Joe, the first Poland China hog to bring a price as high as $1,250, died near Pilot Grove the other day. In 1916 the $1,250 price made the animal nationally famous. The owner says the hog seemed to be in perfect health shortly before its death, and he cannot understand it. Perhaps it had just heard of the sale of Harrison's Big Bob, another Poland China, for $10,100 in Hannibal and died of a broken heart.

The Springfield Leader tries to reassure golfists who lament the end of daylight saving by saying there is no law against getting up an hour or two earlier. Doesn't the Leader know that staying abed till the last possible moment is the first law of nature.

A state capital might be defined as an incubator in which politics is hatched.

The Beloit Gazette hopefully believes the fact that a minister has recovered his memory after his mind had been a blank for three years is a sign that the delinquent subscriber may also recover his memory some time. Which is optimism to a high degree.

Paint adds as much to the pleasing appearance of a town as it detracts from the pleasing appearance of a girl.

A Sedalia appartment house owner has offered a young man an apartment free for six months if he will marry. As further encouragement to the youth we would say that that is as long as the average couple stays married nowadays.

His Lack of Appreciation.

"Men ain't got no sympathy at all for us working girls!" asserted Heloise of the Rapid Fire Restaurant. "Looka that blond guy over there, f'rinstance. He's been lunching here steady for nearly two weeks, and ain't never yet showed the first symptoms of proposing to me. Lord knows, I don't want him, but I'd like to have him give some sign that he reckernizes I'm alive!"

His.

"What's yours?" demanded the turtle headed salesman.

"Mine is the money I expected to spend here," grimly replied old Festus Pester, "but which I shall now take to some store where the clerks have more sense than to salute a prospective customer in that boorish manner!"

Sufficient Excuse.

"What excuse does Lab Juckett offer for trying to kill his brother-in-law?" asked a neighbor.

"None, as far as I've heered, except to say that it was his brother-in-law that he was trying to kill," replied Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, Ark.

Tipton High School had the trouble most small town high schools have in getting people to attend its athletic contests in sufficient numbers to pay expenses. But Tipton also had some kid financiers. They organized a Boosters Club, sold 208 sharts at a dollar a share, or something like that, and started the season with something for expenses, besides the backing of the town. The school's various teams, encouraged by such support, have won all their games so far and the attendance has been so good that the investors seem likely to get a dividend. It really is better than some oil stock.

Stop the habit now before it's too late. It's a simple process to rid yourself of the tobacco habit in any form. Just go to any up-to-date drug store and get some Nicotol tablets; take them as directed and lo; the pernicious habit quickly vanishes. Druggists refund the money if they fail. Once You Try Millers You'll Never Trust to Luck

TIRE satisfaction doesn't come from unusual mileage of one or two casings. Because that is poor reward for those that blow out after 1,000 or 2,000 miles.

That is why we say, that once you have tried Millers you will never again trust to luck. For all Millers wear alike. All give uniform long distance mileage. Tire after tire, Millers outrun all standard mileage guarantees.

Compare Them With Others

Every tire is backed by an unlimited mileage guarantee. Regardless of the mileage run, each Miller is guaranteed against defects in materials and workmanship.

Put Millers to the test. Get a pair of these uniform, long distance runners. Put them on opposite wheels, or put one opposite your favorite tire in the back, and one in the front.

Note the mileage each gives. Compare it with the mileage your favorite tires have given. Then you will be convinced.

Get Millers NOW

Only on them can you get the Geared-to-the-Road Tread. This tread engages the ground like cogs, and assures you full power and safety on rutty roads and slippery pavements.

Drive up and let us put a pair of Millers on your car now. Don't trust to luck when you can get mileage certainty.

SOCIALISTS OWN OIL LAND

Numerous Anti-Capitalists are Becoming Millionaires in Texas —Tract Bought by Fifty "Agitators" for a Ball Field Many Years Ago is in Heart of Rich Field.

From Oklahoma City Oklahoman.

Fort Worth, Tex.—What is a Socialist to do when he becomes a millionaire?

Will he divide with his fellow Socialists, or will he quit the party?

That is an important question to Texas members of the party just now and quite as important to certain members in the new Texas oil fields, because several of the former anti-capitalistic agitators of the Desdemona and Ranger oil fields have struck it rich and are well on their way to millions.

One of the most conspicuous of these cases is Richard Carruth of Desdemona, who has several large producers on his land and dozens of other wells drilling. He is now rated at ½ million dollars and new wealth in pouring in upon him daily. He talks oil instead of Socialism now.

Other conspicuous examples are James Munday, John Hawkins, Oliver Payne and James Ellison, all of whom have made big money in the Desdemona field.

Ball Team Causes Controversy.

These facts call to mind one of the most unique stories of the oil field. Several years ago Eastland county was the hotbed of Socialism in Texas, having a greater percentage of its voters in the Socialist party than any other section of Texas. Men of that political faith seemed to thrive on the sandy soil of that section until they became a real power in their local politics.

It was during those days that the Socialists of Desdemona—then it was called Hogtown—organized a baseball team. And they made a very good job of it, because it was a very good ball team. Nearly every team that played with the Desdemona lads was defeated. Finally the Democrats, who had managed to keep a lead in politics, decided that something must be done. They organized a rival team and after much practice played the Socialists. The radicals won easily.

At that time there was no regular ball park at Desdemona and the socialists had cleared off a small space in the pasture of Dr. S. E. Snodgrass. That was the scene of the Democrats' defeat.

Snodgrass was a Democrat and after the ball game other leaders of his party appealed to him. They told him that the Socialists could not be beaten at baseball so they ought to be stopped. The only way was to prohibit them from using the Snodgrass pasture. So Snodgrass gave the order.

Pasture Was Sold.

Then the Socialists offered to buy the small tract where they had been playing. Snodgrass told them they could have it for $50, this being considered a pretty steep price for the acre or two of ground. The Socialists' players and fans' however, chipped in a dollar apiece and bought the ground.

Now this old diamond is in the heart of the Desdemona field and the potential oil production of the site is worth millions.

It belongs to the Socialists, but which ones?

Each man who can prove his claim that he gave one of the dollars will get a share in it. Plans to drill on the tract will be started as soon as this ownership is cleared up. But certain it is that every one of the owners formerly was a Socialist.

Many other Socialists around Desdemona have made lots of money in oil. L. Steele, a school teacher who formerly made appeals for Socialism in the county campaigns, is one of them. Another is James Ellison, whose farm is just in line to become an area of big production.

The same is true of the Ranger district, the northern part of Eastland County and in Stephens county, all districts where big oil production has been developed. Scores of these former Socialists now are independently wealthy.

Will they divide?

Cut Down Your Cost of Feed

The Stock Feeder Who Knows How to Feed Makes Money Easily

UNITED Feed Mill

To obtain the beest results, grind your grain. There is plenty of good evidence that proves the feeding value of ground grain. Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment Station fed dry corn to dairy cows and 18.3 per cent of it passed through the animals undigested. The Ohio Station showed by test that the average daily milk by cows during fourteen days tested 16.2 lbs. when fed on corn and cob meals against 15.7 lbs. when fed on ear corn. Kansas Experiment Station showed that 16 per cent of the whole grain passed through the animals without even being broken up. And on thousands of farms today there is a tremendous waste by feeding whole grain, all of which could be saved to the benefit of the farmers and the buying public by grinding the grain. More weight by use of less grain means public benefit. The problem of today is to make the same amount go farther—let each one try to save and then see the result. More hogs and more cattle for less cost, thereby obtaining more dollars for less grain.—Grind Right.

UNITED FEED MILL

The United Mill is Built to withstand the hardest usage. Every part is perfectly fitted and finished. Will grind more of any grain with less power than any other mill.

Will grind from coarse feed for stock to the finest table meal desired. The United is equipped with the Diamond Disc, self-sharpening, automatic aligning, with more cutting edges than on any other grinder. The flat face cross cut diamond teeth produce a positive shear cut so necessary when grinding oats ar similar grain.

We carry in stock all sizes from the small hand mill to the large tractor size which will grind 100 bushel corn per hour. We are positive we can save you money.

First of all, fine tobaccos. Our own buyers in the Orient send us the pick of the finest Turkish varieties (Xanthi, Cavalla, Smyrna and Samsoun). We blend these by a secret method with specially choice Domestic leaf.

This method brings out new qualities of flavor—a smoothness, a richness, a mellowness that go right to the spot. That's the reason Chesterfields satisfy.

And remember—"Satisfy" is Chesterfield's secret, based on our own private formula, which cannot be copied.

Every package has a moisture-proof wrapping—another reason for Chesterfield's unchanging quality of flavor.

THE PRICE OF SHOES.

An item has been going the rounds stating that in an address at a banquet in the east recently a prominent monufacturer predicted a sharp decline in the price of shoes before very long. The gentleman says his address was either misunderstood or else garbled for he did not mean to say any such thing and at present there is no relief in sight from the high prices of footwear.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co. Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CORN RECOVERS FROM RECENT SLUMP

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Reports that a $500,000,000 credit had been negotiated between New York financial interests and Germany had much influenct today as a strengthening factor in the grain and provision markets. Corn closed steady at 7-8c to 2 1-2c net advance, oats up 1-2@3-8c to 1-2c and provisions unchanged to 77c higher.

Gossip about the supposed big loan to Germany led to assumptions that the German nation would purchase freely of American foodstuffs. Considerable investment buying of corn here as well as extensive covering on the part of shorts ensued. Notwithstanding that disclaimers were received from New York as to any knowledge of such a loan the market went upward and at no time showed any important reaction. Aside from report of a loan to Germany, the chief bullish factors were set weather predictions and the scantiness of receipts. A decided fresh upturn in the value of hogs was a further stimulas to would be owners of corn.

Oats were firmer with corn. Eastern demand was active and there was no prospect of an increase in supplies from rural sources.

Nearly all deliveries of provisions made a sharp upturn in price. More active domestic demand for packing house products was noted, and the trade gave due attention to the German loan reports.

U. S. STEEL REPORT INFLUENCES MARKET

New York, Oct. 29.—The favorable quarterly report of the United States steel corporation was the foremost influence during the early and intermediate stages of today's stock market. These were offset in the later dealings by another flurry in money and the news that the United Mine Workers had refused to rescind their strike order.

In the money market an opening rate of 9 per cent prevailed until the final hour, when 12 per cent was demanded, the final rate being five per cent.

Steels and equipments were the most active features of the session.

Texas company led all others at a gain of 31 points to 340, losing only a point at the close. Cuban-American Sugar and South Port Rico sugar scored extreme advances of 39 and 24 points, respectively, and United fruit made a vigorous spurt of 19 points with 7 for Atlantic Gulf.

Republic again led the steels rising over 7 points to the new maximum of 1.25 3-8, but the greater part of this advance was cancelled in the heavy selling just before the end, United States Steel closing at fractional loss.

Sales amounted to 1,475,000 shares.

Liberty issues were the only exception to the easier trend of the bond market to 3 1-2s again mounting to 101. Total sales (par value $12,290,000.

How American Women Break Down

Owing to the modern manner of living and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, they overdo, and as a consequence develop ailments peculiar to their sex, as is indicated by backache, headache, nervousness, the blues, displacements and weakness.

Women who find themselves in this condition should slow down, and depend upon that good old fashioned root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, to restore them to health and strength, for there is no other remedy known that so quickly restores a healthy, normal condition.

Here is the Story of a Most Remarkable Recovery

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night, and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old, and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from me, so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."

WILL PROVIDE FOOD FOR STARVING JEWS

Money Contributed to Relief Work Will be Used for No Other Purpose.

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 29.—In a recent interview with Felix Warburg a statement concerning the use of ten million dollars to establish loan banks for the purpose of rehabilitating Jews of eastern Europe has caused some discussion in regard to the present campaign of the American Jewish Relief Committee.

Henry P. Rosenfelt, national director of this organization, says this enterprise is entirely separate from the relief campaigns now being conducted in various parts of the country. Mr. Rosenfelt said: "The reconstruction corporation discussed in Mr. Warburg's cable is a project still in the formative stage. The money now being raised in Illinois Jewish Relief campaign is solely for emergency relief, not a cent is to be invested in any way, but moneys collected are to be used for providing food, clothing and other necessities for more than a million pitiable children in eastern Europe and their destitute elders. The project referred to by Mr. Warburg has to do with the permanent rehabilitation. The campaign of the American Jewish Relief Committee is to provide emergency relief for these unfortunate people abroad without which according to Herbert Hoover, Henry Morgenthau and other competent authorities many will not survive the rigors of winter.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c.
